Colloquy is an open access, double-blind peer-reviewed journal produced by postgraduate students in the Literary and Cultural Studies Graduate Research Program at Monash University. The journal publishes scholarly articles, creative writing and book reviews by postgraduate students and early career researchers in literary and cultural studies, philosophy, media studies, and related interdisciplinary fields.

Colloquy publishes material under a Creative Commons Attribution-NonCommercial 4.0 International license (CC BY-NC). This means that, for non-commercial use, readers are free to share, reproduce, store, or use the material published in Colloquy, as long as a proper citation acknowledges the author and the publisher. Authors published in Colloquy retain full copyright over their work, without restrictions. The CC BY-NC license does not apply to third-party works, such as images or extracts of texts, which may be included in articles. These third-party works may still be protected by copyright, appearing within Colloquy articles with permission of the rights holder (all rights reserved) or under a fair dealing exception for criticism or review.
